Babuji's Birthday

You are a leader of people, my dear son, a born organiser. This dimension gives you a special place in our Mission where you will continue to have an iconic stature for centuries to come. Your personality makes its mark on people's minds. We have touched their hearts, and you lift them up to the zenith in the context of a broad liberation movement long-awaited in this world of human beings – a world that is more than ever plagued by uncertainty and by the greatest confusion since time immemorial. A complete transformation must occur to maintain humanity in a status that is conducive to its elevation, far beyond the current standards. The world is drifting, without morality, without a laudable goal for the majority of human beings, except that of pleasure in all its forms. A poor outcome, indeed! Divine power will overcome these excesses of all kinds. May tomorrow's world be united for the better in recognition of this unique power, without which it would have been reduced to nothing a long time ago.

May peace reign in this world and unite hearts for the good of all. We support you on all levels as far as possible, my dear son. Be calm in spite of everything: we care for you with much love.
