Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Tuesday, June 2, 2010 – 10:00 a.m.

Rest assured, my daughter. Everything in the Mission will take place in due time. The higher authorities act in their own way, which is not that of humanity. Trust and surrender – aren't they the key words? Under the circumstances, they are particularly relevant. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être? So far, the life of the Mission has not been smooth sailing. It has been rocked by so much turmoil, and this will again be the case in the future. Isn't inconsistency a characteristic of this world where – sadly – human beings, however spiritual they may be, retain human impulses? The latter must, unfortunately, manifest themselves so that they can be remedied more effectively.

The Mission continues on its path, and we follow it closely, on all levels.

Blessings.

Babuji
