Swami Vivekananda

Whispers from The Brighter World

A Sixth Revelation

Sunday, October 31, 2010 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear sister,

What a joy to find you fully receptive in heart and mind while in this contact. Your Beloved appreciates this. It is with his approval that I have come back to you. Our bonds in that previous life were so strong that they cannot be forgotten.

It is hard to see you suffer like this without being able to really help you at this level. God's laws are not simple to understand, but your career is not ordinary. As fruitful as it is in all respects, it is not free of ordeals.

You are blessed. Be brave, very dear soul!

Vivekananda