Tuesday, June 22, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Regain your strength, my dear child, you are exhausted. We like your courage, and we like to see how you are moving forward, despite all the obstacles. There are limits to everything. We see how much you are perturbed by these treatments and let's repeat to you: 'Don't feel guilty, will you'. Your associates have enough to read and reread. Think of better times, all full of light and joy."

The Medium: "This can be only in your company, Babuji!"

"Not necessarily. Keep hoping, thus you will show your faith in us."

Babuji