Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, November 3, 2010 – 10:00 a.m.

My dearest Parthasarathi,

Dear and great son, you are necessarily involved in the visit to Montpellier of these boys who are valuable elements of our Mission. Your physical presence is in India, but your spirit accompanies them here, and so do we. Each one of them represents the present and the future of our Mission and even beyond, as their respective work is invaluable for the future in many ways. There are great things that they have yet to accomplish in the service of their Master. Time will decide about it; you know what you will have to do in your capacity as an incarnate spiritual Master.

Your heart is waiting for these few lines, written with love by our scribe for your attention. She does the needful with happiness at the thought of bringing you this comfort.

May this message help you, however little it may be, in this blessed moment of communion with all those here who love and support you, each one in their own way. Be at peace. Go beyond this world and take refuge in us, in this Eden for which your heart longs. We look forward to seeing you therein, delighting in His Splendour.

Babuji
