Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, November 3, 2010 – 4:30 p.m.

We love you. You may sometimes doubt it, in the face of difficulties associated with the task that falls to you, but you also know, deep down, that things must happen this way. No one in this world escapes this hard struggle. As far as you are concerned, it is very productive, and we admire you – you can be sure – for all the important things you accomplish for the greatness of our Mission, despite the obstacles.

Once again, we assure you of our love; it is out of the ordinary.
Be blessed, dear and great son of our united hearts.
