Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Thursday, November 4, 2010 – 9:45 a.m.

We bless you all, dear beautiful souls gathered around our daughter. Your attention towards her fills us with joy. May these moments remain preciously etched in your hearts!

You have all our love. Continue working, each in your own way, for the greatness of your Master. He is the guardian of the sacred temple.

May peace be with you all.
