We take great care of you, you are precious to us, don't doubt it. Why wouldn't you be? On the one hand, your human criteria are not right; and, on the other hand, what is the basis of your thinking that you are not important? For our part, you are. The heart's reasons go beyond all human complicated evaluations. We love you; that's the way it is.

"Didn't I tell you that our heart to heart would continue one way or another? We do not want to take too much of your strength; we just want to show you that we are here and that our contacts have not come to an end. We want to comfort your poor heart, so unhappy for not being able to overcome the situation you are in. Courage is not always enough. Keep your spirits up. We shower you with our love."
