Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, January 17, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

There is a time for everything, my dear daughter. Do not doubt yourself so. This is not new, but regarding this special exchange with our son, we pace our remarks according to his request and his states of soul. Above all, we know how much he needs to be reassured in certain areas.

His responsibilities are great for a man of his age. Even if he carries his age with panache, it nonetheless results in great weariness in the face of events, and you are in a good position to understand this. It is important for him to be comforted in this way. Are we not the best source of refreshment for his heart? We help him in our own way, but on the human level his solitude is great, even though he is very well looked after.

He has always done, and will continue to do, whatever it takes for the greatness of our Mission in the world. It is, and will long remain, an invaluable support for the great many people searching for what is essential.

Be at peace, dear messenger. You meet all our expectations, and you know that your Master is happy with your performance. Blessings to you.
