Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, February 5, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Life still has some surprises in store for you. You have yet to achieve 'certain feats'; you know what this is all about. Spare yourself, we insist on this point. You will soon be able to act according to your heart; that will be our gift as per your wish.

Think about what you can still do and be happy, carried by our love – 'what must be will be'.
