Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, February 21, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Our comments run through you, my daughter, as a beneficent wave. Your heart calls them with fervour, hence our continued commitment in giving them to you. This long epic will have a sustainable influence on our Mission. These messages are not given in vain; they will unfailingly leave their mark upon hearts. You have been receiving convincing feedback on this subject. Comments require repeating; human beings need that, as it is in the order of things. Let time run at will; it builds what must be built, depending on the era and on human evolution. Great civilisations disappeared, taking their secrets with them; thus is this world, and we cannot change it. Such is the divine order.

May all benefit from what is now being given; the future will make use of it as it pleases. That is the way it goes.
