Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Sunday, April 10, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Be at peace, my dear daughter. Everything will happen as it should. Destiny is inescapable; our Mission is writing its history, one that will profoundly mark future times. Today heralds the best. May our brother and sister abhyasis truly commit themselves to this prospect; they are building the future of a spiritual way that is adapted to the present and that will meet the aspirations of the people of tomorrow.

May all be blessed and enlightened.
