Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, April 15, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter,

Allow time to let things unfold as they should. Humans are limited in their vision. They focus too much on material aspects, without delving into the truth and reality of events. Our dear Kamlesh will remedy this situation. He quickly understood the value of this apartment. Except for sacred places and ashrams, it is uncommon in the Mission to give importance to a private apartment. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être? Time will confirm the soundness of what we tell you. We have long imbued the premises with our energies. There is no equivalent in our Mission: an apartment of this kind, visited by the Greatest Masters, is therefore so very blessed. Your dear son-in-heart has understood this; he is a true mystic, carried by his love for the Masters and his strong faith in our Mission for the good of humanity.

Regain your serenity, at least on this point.

Babuji
