(After the morning meditation, Patrick says to me: "Master will expect you at 4:00 p.m." which confirms what Babuji said the day before.

4:00 p.m.: discussion with Master, then he gives me a sitting. He does not understand why my preceptor needs his approval to give me a sitting on a weekly basis.

For the 6:00 p.m. meditation, I decide not to go to the hall, I remain in the dining room and meditate there.)

(5:50 p.m.: Babuji's message for Master.)

In the near future, you will have to reorganize the Mission. Many things will change in the world, and peoples will confront each other. India will have a role to play in this great upheaval. Spirituality will save humanity.

"Have no fear; the forces of evil will be defeated. Pray for that at the dawn of this New Year. Be blessed, my Beloved son."
