Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, May 6, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

She who was your 'Mother', as she introduces herself [to your Master], is right. You worry needlessly, which is detrimental to your health. Don't you know that what should be will be? Therefore, please regain peace, and, if necessary, let your Master know what your real worry is. My son will surely approve your idea that the apartment should be managed according to your wishes. It is so greatly imbued with our respective energies. Don't change anything to the will, please. With regard to this place, dear Kamlesh and his descendants will respect your wishes, as per the approval of your Master.

Be blessed, my daughter.
