Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, May 13, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

To my son,

Everything is written in advance, my dear son. We only obey the orders of the Divine, each in our own way. The preparation of your successor has been going on for a long time, away from human eyes – away from covetousness, criticism and the unwholesome thoughts entertained by envious people. His heart reflects our energies, which he has been offering to you with his faithful love for a long time. It was preferable, given the increasing expansion of our Mission, to protect him in this way. Even a high-level Master cannot see this reality when it is guarded for many reasons. We had to test, in a way, the being we plan to entrust with the reins of an empire of this size.

In the shadows, constantly confronted with many torments – such is the training of a being who is predisposed to accomplish great things. Each of us, up to the present, was endowed with a personality in accordance with the times. The future will be different from today; this should be anticipated.

Do not worry, you will do the needful. Out of habit, one does not always see what is obvious in their own circle. May this truth open your eyes and allow you to make the right choice as regards your successor. The truth will dawn upon you and remain in you forever. We will revert to this matter, if necessary. Do not worry, all will be well, and you will not regret your choice. This time it will be good. Everything had to happen as it did; you made no mistake. Be confident, you are our blessed star in this world. Let all possible love be upon you. It will strengthen and carry you throughout all these trials.

We will come back to this topic; be at peace for the love of us.
