Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Sunday, May 15, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

This third point [point C] is in reality a strategic point, key to all the secrets about human evolution. There, positive and negative aspects come together and are balanced according to divine laws.

No incarnate being is perfect; everyone must come to terms with their nature and a different facet of themselves. This gray area should help identify the human traits that facilitate their advancement on the difficult path of life. Multiple underlying effects also manifest and are taken into account on this point; it is one which is characteristic of the human race but which cannot be revealed at this stage of human evolution.
