Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, June 29, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

My son is going through a moment of great weariness; he will recover from it. Our love and that of all our brother and sister abhyasis – and there are more and more of them who support him – is still expecting a lot of him. He is the chosen Master, the beacon of this Mission on Earth. He inspires and helps it to grow and follow a path that will leave its mark on the future.

Some persons have put their stamp on history; he will leave behind him the image of a great Master who marked the dawning of the new era. People's minds must open up, grow and rise up to Divinity and not wallow in the miasma of a life devoid of spirituality and ideals. Our way offers an approach capable of helping them to advance spiritually and to place themselves in relation to the true purpose of existence on this Earth.

Blessed are seeking hearts, as their souls aspire to the Divine, to beauty and elevation to the ultimate goal. We bless them.
