Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, August 6, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Find peace inside you, my child. There, we lead you to those places where true love awaits. There is no disappointment or change here. Grace at this level does not vary; it is a divine gift and therefore immutable. Let your whole being enjoy this energy. It regenerates the cells of your body, in their subtlety. The human world offers many possibilities, but what to say of the world of the Spirit? It extends to the Infinite.

Enjoy and be at peace. Simply taste the present moment. You have our full attention.
