Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, August 10, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

She is typified by a rose, her favourite flower. Perfection and beauty are surely the distinctive features of such a beautiful soul. Yes, my daughter, this beloved Saint [Therese of Lisieux] changed your life, long before we came to France. Her action in those days was important to you. She prepared your heart for its special journey and brought it to us to become in our Mission the privileged pencil in the service of the Masters.

You remain faithful to her, and she too is faithful; bonds at this level cannot dissolve.

May grace keep both of you immersed in this ocean of love, and may it glorify your kindred souls forever.

Babuji

My dear sister, you are the special link between our hearts. Joining this concert is a delight. How could we not participate in it! You are precious to us, you can be sure. Be blessed and strengthened. And your mission is not over yet.

Your Master, Parthasarathi.
