Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Thursday, August 18, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

This boy is precious to our Mission. He has a noble soul that found in this Mission its proper spiritual food for this incarnation.

Your mystical impulses are alike, and they support each other. Each of you, in your respective ways, experiences the torments inflicted on the physical body. They are necessary, as you know, for your souls to blossom. Be strengthened on this day that is special for you, my daughter, and be blessed by all of us.
