Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, August 27, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Kamlesh – his Master is now truly discovering him and did not suspect that he had so much depth and so many resources inside him. His real potential was hidden for good reasons, hence the situation. His path is all mapped out; he will hold a great and true vision for our Mission, which makes all of us here very happy. The succession looks bright, according to the divine plans. May the years to come be conducive to the expansion of our Mission among human beings.

Tough times will lead them back to more lucidity and wisdom, it is hoped. We are now by the side of this boy [Kamlesh] who is so dear to our hearts. This is in the order of things.
