Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Sunday, September 11, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Open this sacred door and imagine the Infinite Splendour, the beauty of a world that has nothing in common with the material world. We repeat ourselves, but this ritual helps you to let go, to distance yourself from the vicissitudes of material life and receive inside yourself this heavenly peace necessary for this contact. So many messages have been written this way, in a state of surrender and love, offered without any expectation on your part.

You understood early in your life that divine love is the driving force in all steps of this kind.

As for the intellect, it has little role in this matter. Love cannot be commanded. It emanates from a soul sensitive to beauty, this fabulous divine energy that can 'move mountains'.

Love carries one very high; inspired, sincere and devoid of any ulterior motives, it can work wonders in the hearts of our abhyasis. Isn't it said that love is everything? It can do great things, indeed – and it will. The time will come when it will prevail among human beings. This will not happen tomorrow, but nothing is impossible for the Creator of all things. Our method will help, more and more. It is a very simple method, without too many constraints. Sincere commitment offers wide-ranging possibilities; it is up to each one to seize them.

We wish the best for all.
