Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

The Medium: We are so small in this world. Why is there so much meanness and malice on the part of people, even those from whom it isn't expected?

That is how the human race is, my daughter. Other kingdoms living in this world behave the same way; this is how it is.

That is why we are working in this world towards the spiritual elevation of humanity as a whole; this dimension is missing. There are noble souls who become incarnate to provide help. Others are progressing and doing their best to reach an ideal of inner beauty. There is much to do, and only a radical change planned by the divine power in action will work in this direction. This will not be easy, but that blessed time will come about when – finally – human beings behave as evolved creatures and not like beings who fall prey to materialism, with its trail of ugliness that is often hidden, but no less real.

May all understand this and truly advance. Such is our greatest wish. We are working from this perspective.
