Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, September 16, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Do you realise your luck? Having a spiritual Master of such high stature as yours in this incarnation is an unparalleled grace. Your place of birth did not lend itself to this, and yet you were able to find your way, guided by your faith and your surrender to the higher powers. There is a common thread running through successive incarnations. Nothing happens without reason. Travels, encounters and multiple discoveries offered by a life on Earth open wide horizons for the inspired seeker. Each one finds what suits his or her evolution. Doesn't everything have its 'raison d'être'? Sooner or later, what seems insignificant in our comments finds its justification. A particular day or circumstance brings about an experience that alone can change one's life; so was it in your case.

An encounter brought you to us, to this spiritual way that was unknown to you at the time; our guidance did the rest. This outcome was inevitable. There lay your destiny, my daughter. Do you regret it? It doesn't seem so. Such was your mission; it is an important one, you can be assured of this. You doubt everything, especially yourself, but the facts are there. You cannot change anything. These messages will increasingly touch people's hearts. Their vibration is perceived and appreciated by sensitive beings. May they all one day perceive their benefit. Time knows what it is doing, and so do we.
