Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Tuesday, September 20, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

The way of the heart is the noblest and the most beautiful. Blessed are those who are devoted to it. We are insistent, but how can we be otherwise? This world is deeply saddening and discouraging in many respects. There are beautiful souls who are working for the good; great things are being done both humanly and spiritually, but there is so much to do that we must necessarily insist in order to heighten the good and the beautiful in everyone. This good exists; one must put it forward and put aside the tensions and the ugliness of all kinds. Today people live in a state of abnormal excitement. Many tensions, resulting primarily from their environment, quite often cause them to live in a disorderly manner. How could they, under such circumstances, interiorise themselves and seek the best within themselves? They neglect what is essential; how could they become aware of it in a world that is going mad, focusing primarily on material aspects!

May awakened souls not waste time unnecessarily in useless pursuits, but become fully aware of the precariousness of an incarnation. May grace touch them and awaken them to the divine splendour.
