Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

The pillars of the sacred temple often mentioned in these messages already form a strong edifice that will take on its full meaning in the future. Though it will be no easy task, a fourth and final element [pillar] will provide the temple with the determining factors to consolidate this spiritual achievement in line with future times. Nothing will be simple, but on Earth everything always becomes complicated with regard to humans, who are often disconcerting in their reactions.

Neither do we have a magic wand; humans are what they are. What matters is to progress, and to bring into this world what can be useful to it spiritually. Nevertheless, the sacred magic has a beneficial effect in people's hearts. Some of our aspirants are beginning to appreciate these messages, which contribute to their open-mindedness. Time is doing its work in people's hearts. Blessed are those who are moving forward; there is still time. May they be enlightened and strengthened. Such is our wish.
