Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, September 23, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Only a beautiful and great love story could yield so many messages. Self-sacrifice and perseverance strengthen the gifts generously offered in a state of utmost surrender. All these years have been marked by the daily transcription of these lines. Our continuous interventions have become a sacred ritual – this is the appropriate word here. Haven't we repeatedly said that these writings were the bible of the future, which people will increasingly need? Precarious human life will be made more difficult by great problems that lie ahead. These writings are much richer than some people may believe. They are not intended as a literary work; such is not our purpose. Their purpose goes far beyond. It is the heart that is targeted here. Isn't it the seat of the soul, where everything begins and ends in an incarnation?

May the greatest and most beautiful love sublimate every life offered to the Divinity. Choosing a Master and following him with confidence and faith in an ideal of purity and spiritual greatness – this gives real meaning to an Earthly journey, which is conducive to the soul's elevation. Different ways are offered. Ours continues to advance in people's hearts; it is in tune with current and future times. It is expanding accordingly. Blessed are the hearts open to the divine splendour; they are among the chosen ones.
