Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, October 5, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

My son's decision is very important. His choice is decisive for our Mission and its consecration, when one day it joins a far-reaching action combined with other higher forces capable of transforming this world. This will not happen tomorrow, but the framework is being built day by day in order to develop a great spiritual power meant to lead humanity to a higher state of realisation, which alone can save it. Blessed are those who already involve themselves in a spiritual way capable of strengthening them and elevating them above the miasma of exacerbated materialism.

Was it not said about the new symbol that, in the future, our way will be at the heart of a great unifying movement for the good of all humanity? The saying goes that unity is strength. The forces of good will have to unite beyond any kind of prejudice, and see only the best for everyone in the face of a critical situation which cannot be handled on the human level. The divine power will see to it; that is the way it goes.
