Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, October 10, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Why do you no longer express yourself here? Your heart is in a state of praise, but it keeps its impulses to itself. You can never express your love too much; criticism from some of your fellow beings is truly unimportant. Think of those who appreciate these writings and are being nourished by them with the passing days; they too are in a receptive state and are thus strengthened by a subtle energy.

Let yourself be carried away by this powerful wave. Other hearts will follow by reading our comments. Why are we giving these messages? Because they are a real treasure for our way, and they will be appreciated more and more.

Those who do not like them miss out on something important; it is unfortunate for them, but what can we do?

Do not worry. These messages are increasingly read in the world, and this is just beginning.

Be at peace, dear scribe, and do not be afraid to express yourself here.
