Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Saturday, October 22, 2011 – 10:00 a.m.

Rejoin us within yourself, our dear heart. There lies your sacred refuge where you love to nourish yourself, like the bee in the heart of the flower where it can find 'the real life'. That food is the most precious one, the richest ever. Let yourself be carried away by the growing flow; it gradually elevates you to a state of bliss. Such an asset in one's life is precious; it results from a journey, an inner calling that allows one to achieve the best. 'All is nothing, God is everything,' as was said by a saint you love. How better to say it and to express so simply what is obvious to an elite soul carried by grace.

Suffering by itself opens infinite spaces. Whatever its form, it leads the being to consider the main thing: the divine energy inside oneself, the driving force capable of overcoming human nature. It is not easy to reach this state. How many struggles are required, but the result is worth it, you can be sure.

May all be blessed and enlightened.
