Saturday, April 30, 1994

Birthday Anniversary

(At 7:00 p.m., after the 6:00 p.m. meditation.)

All is well, a remarkable work has been done, my son has surpassed himself. You may write down the following:

This seminar will have a wide reach; it will not change the course of history but what has been cleaned will help many souls. My child, thank you for your remembrance and your love, you are dear to my heart. One day you will be near me, and you will do all that your body prevents you from doing here below. Patrick is doing an important work for the Mission; he sometimes gets discouraged, it is heavy to bear. You have a connection with this boy.

The Medium: Who, Babuji?

It is a son; he will need you one day.

The Medium: Need me, Babuji?

Yes, don't be surprised; one often needs someone smaller than oneself.

(Another message for Chariji.)

My son gives me so much joy. His strength and his resilience amaze me sometimes; he is a very hard worker. Tell him how proud I am of him; he is my joy. This seminar is an exemplary success for the West.

The Medium: Babuji, should this message be given?

Follow your heart.

(And he continues.)

I am happy, very happy. I should not be too sentimental, otherwise he will not believe. I am happy for Sulochana; all is well. See you soon!

Babuji