Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Tuesday, January 3, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Everyone has to manage their weaknesses; no human being is perfect. There lies the challenge for all here below. Perfection is not of this world. Human beings are supposed to assert themselves over time and understand the many pitfalls that surround them, whether visible or not. A diligently followed spiritual path has no other purpose than that, namely to lift the soul above the human condition and allow it to cope with the vagaries of human life. To see only beauty in everyone is the beginning of wisdom, although in certain circumstances one has to protect oneself. All is fragile here below, and life hangs by a thread, a breath, a nothing, and nothing more. Each minute counts and there is no time to waste in getting to what is essential.

May all our aspirants understand this and act with faith and determination in this regard.
