Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, January 13, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Forget life's worries; they are endless on the material plane. Life is punctuated by them, and no one escapes them. Spiritual growth allows one to elude their influence, to put things into perspective and to envision a path where the spirit can find its way. Cultivating beauty within, as well as purity of soul and intent towards others, gives sadhana its true meaning. Following a high-level spiritual Master and his teaching keeps one from drifting off course, which often happens in this tempting and illusory world. It is so easy to fall into all kinds of traps. Who doesn't? To awaken to the world of the spirit gives another perspective of life and offers opportunities. It is up to each and every one to see for themselves, to motivate themselves according to their innermost aspirations – namely, to develop inwardly that which does not perish and remains the best advantage in an incarnation.

May our aspirants engage themselves and work towards the best. Blessings.
