Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Sunday, January 15, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Let this turmoil pass, my daughter. In any event, these messages will be more and more widely known and read. Humans need time to understand things. With regard to these writings, their dissemination will take on more importance over time. Our faithful and enlightened abhyasis will need these readings. Whether they are alone or in groups, they will delve into them, much to the chagrin of those who resist them today. There again issues of ego come into play, but that is not important. My son has seen fit to disseminate them and we are very grateful to him for that. Nothing will stop their advance in people's hearts.

The future will open many doors to knowledge. This kind of perception using channelling will be recognised, as was the case in ancient times. The great religions have benefited greatly from them, although this fact is not known. That does not matter. The only thing that matters is the benefit such literature can provide. It is much needed in these difficult times and will be needed even more in the future. Let time do its work and put into place that which needs to be; let us trust our son on this. May all beings open themselves to knowledge. This is our common goal.
