Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Tuesday, January 17, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Enter into silence. Be surrendered to our hearts; they have been carrying and strengthening you for so long. They give you energy and faith – a faith that has helped you unfailingly to accomplish so much work for these many years. In this case, channelling is not enough; only a deep motivation can generate such results. Nothing will stop the progress of these messages in people's hearts. Over time, they will occupy a place that you cannot imagine. Otherwise, why would we have given them? So much blatant ugliness characterises the present world – to such an extent that many people accept it without batting an eye, as it all seems normal to them. There are ancient civilisations that also reached this level of moral degradation. We do not intend to be moralistic here; we just notice with sadness the state of today's society in many countries. A spiritual advancement can only be beneficial to all. The reading of these writings manages to help humans, and this is not limited to abhyasis, which shows their universality. In the future, they will be appreciated for this quality. This has been wished for and it has motivated our action since the inception of this mystical epic.

May the reading of these many messages lead to more and more knowledge in all hearts open enough to unrestrainedly enjoy their quintessence. Such is our dearest wish, expressed here once again.

Blessings to all.
