Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, January 23, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Don't you say on Earth, 'This is a red-letter day'? Some days are like that; they are out of the ordinary. Here, we are referring to the spiritual level, where the best can happen without the devotee expecting anything. One offers his or her heart in utmost surrender, and grace can operate within as if by magic, as people would say. This kind of magic is divinely planned; it sometimes works miracles. Whether they are visible or not, they result from a higher will to which a person is subjected in all matters. Faith and surrender are the best assets for attracting attention. They are crucial in any process where the call of the heart is paramount.

You should focus on the main thing and not let yourself be upset by occurrences that are ultimately unimportant. You have a high degree of sensitivity; such gifts require this condition allowing you to capture that which many mediums cannot. There are many levels in this capability. One's purity of heart and intent also contribute to a very large extent. Not all mediums are working for the forces of good alone; the dark parts of their being let themselves be carried where they should not go.

Here, we are beyond such gifts as those mentioned above. This task was reserved for our scribe who was chosen a long time ago, and that is the way it goes. These messages are a divine gift. Blessed are those who accept them and revere the Masters of the Sahaj Marg Mission for all they offer that is both unique and great.

Blessings to all.
