The Medium: Beloved Babuji and you, my Master, thank you for this sitting which was exceptional in its unfolding and the graces received. My gratitude is great. It remains my priority to serve you better and fervently, until the end. Your presence in these circumstances, Revered Lalaji, moves me greatly. Your birth anniversary is nearing; I am already preparing for it in my heart in some way. Your appearance in such cases has always honoured my humble abode – this heart so eager to love you and serve you, thanks to the means given to it.

Will I once again have the delight of seeing you appear before me? This should be awaited in a state of surrender, with respect, and also with the vivid memory of the Great Being you are. The Mission must not forget you, for without you it would not exist.

Great Lalaji, Lord of this place, you are welcome, now and forever.

My daughter, your comments do you credit. The 'Great Lalaji', my beloved Master, cannot but hear your call; it comes from a heart that is sincere and overflowing with love, to an extent that is uncommon. We manifest ourselves in these 'special individual sittings' for good reasons, which we will not discuss here. You are experiencing these exceptional moments; that is the main thing. Our beloved scribe fully deserves them. That is the way it goes, my dear daughter. Prepare for this anniversary in your heart, as you have suggested. May all our aspirants do the same and not forget the greatness of this exceptional being, the originator of our Sahaj Marg Mission.

Be at peace and blessed.

Babuji
