Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Thursday, February 2, 2012 – 8:00 a.m.

Birthday of Lalaji Maharaj

On this very blessed day of celebration – the birth anniversary of my Master – we would like to see our aspirants highly committed to these annual pauses.

Each of these pauses brings forth a special vibratory element within our Mission. This element manifests itself differently depending on the state of receptivity of the aspirant who is open to this connection with higher powers. It is advisable to open 'this door', such a special one in these times of inner communion when this kind of love can reveal itself. We offer to our brothers and sisters on the path these very special days, when the soul can exalt in loving.

May they all understand the importance of these anniversary times. They go far beyond human understanding. They are offered to receptive hearts that understand the underlying reasons for such a commitment.

May joy and love spread in this world! We are all working towards that, and we invite all those who feel interested to follow.

Blessings to all.

Babuji