Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, February 6, 2012 – 10:30 a.m.

Dearest Parthasarathi,
See how you are loved; few human beings arouse such admiration and fervour. Our Mission is growing, and so are you, in the wake of the Chosen Ones. Manapakkam will remain one of the sacred strongholds of our Mission; it was there that it took on all its current magnitude. What will remain of your body of flesh will be venerated there and nowhere else. This is worth emphasising in this circumstance in which our very dear Janaki has been able to express herself. A spiritual Master of high stature leaves his mark on his era, and he should be honoured throughout time. This must be said again and again. The incarnate Masters in our Mission represent, in their respective times, precious anchoring points for this world. To honour a Master is to venerate this unique divine power which manifests itself when necessary, during specified times for reasons that elude common mortals. Your path is all mapped out, as you know; above all, do not lose heart, beloved son. We would like to say this to you, face to face, and to breathe strength and courage into you to help you fight and to endure the very painful conditions that life is imposing on you.

When you go through the door to the Celestial Empire, fervent hearts will show their love for you in a way that you cannot even imagine.

Our love does not weaken; far from it – it keeps growing. You have the best from your Master and from all of us.

All the best to you, beloved son.

Babuji