Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, February 10, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Certain complicated situations lead to an awareness of a particular state of affairs requiring some decisions. My son will make the right choices; he has always managed events whenever they seemed difficult. It is not easy for a spiritual Master to always act in the right way. This world is disruptive and often conceals a very disappointing reality. The important thing is that all this should allow the truth to dawn upon him, and the truth should be respected by his entourage. Humans are sometimes such a disappointment. The Great Masters who are renowned in the world have experienced serious disappointments in relation to the beings in whom they had confidence. Such are the characteristics of the reign of illusion where nothing can be sure, or acquired for good. Our Mission will survive whatever happens. Such is the divine will. May it continue on its way for the good of the greatest number.
