Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, February 13, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Spare yourself, my daughter. What you are doing here takes a lot of your energy. One has to experience it to realise it, which was the case for me in my last incarnation. Though it is a divine gift when used in this way, it is nevertheless very demanding and requires a sense of selflessness, especially at the pace and level at which you are operating. Life holds surprises until the end. Hidden during most of your lifetime, your channelling capability has been manifesting itself for us, in all its fullness, for over twenty years. You were predestined for it. Your role in our Mission is unique and will remain so. Everything has its raison d'être, as we have said time and again over the years.

Blessed are the brothers and sisters who value these writings. On the one hand, they honour their Master by respecting his decision to publish them, and on the other hand, they drink at the sacred source as willed by the higher powers. That is the way it goes.
