Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, February 29, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Please relax and protect yourself from harmful vibrations coming from outside. This world is burdened, beyond imagining, by an overall pollution that is worrisome. 'Progress' has more than just a good side; we here witness this quite sadly, without being able to change anything about it. This world is on the march and its fate is unavoidable. May all our brothers and sisters protect themselves from these many disturbances and take refuge in a highly spiritual register that detaches them to some extent from the growing wants of today's humans. Progressing on one's path, interiorising oneself and finding a calming reassurance within – these enable one to be less engaged in useless activities. We wish the best for all. Time is running out, and the destiny of this planet will be fulfilled at any cost.

May faith and love guide our aspirants and lead them to the highest level of realisation; that is the ultimate wish for each of them, from all of us here.
