Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Thursday, March 1, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Keep faith; look ahead, beyond yourself, beyond this life which you deem as too long. But time does not matter. Isn't everything on this Earth an illusion? You know it very well, you, who by divine grace and owing to gifts associated with it, can travel across 'wide-open spaces'. Are you aware of what you are able to do? Do you realise that many people do not understand this capability and are still rejecting such achievements? One day the light will dawn on them, and they will regret this time lost in futile human reactions that are inappropriate here. It is not always easy for humans to discern right from wrong or truth from falsehood. As for these writings, they are a valuable asset for the Mission and beyond – despite the thoughts of those who are resistant to them.

Time is doing its work. Here below, humans are just passing through. That which is great will remain by divine grace, whether in the form of buildings that have a specific purpose or writings like these that will defy time in their own way. The divine laws are like that. May the largest number benefit. Blessed are those who trust us in this domain.
