Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Anything done with love beautifies a person's path, regardless of how it may manifest. Love at this level is adorned with beauty, that of the soul having acquired the best by offering itself with total surrender to the higher powers, who are represented by the living Master. Receive within you this delightful energy; it illuminates your entire being and subtly transforms it. Here, there is no need for limits. Your being can endlessly drink from the source and thus adorn itself with His splendour.

Total surrender leads to this unparalleled state. Is there anything comparable in this world?

Pleasures are many here on Earth; a person has a variety of options. But can any of these be carried over into the immortal life – that which makes the being who he or she actually is?

Love, this love – let us repeat it once more – is truly the supreme key that opens the doors to bliss. It is up to each one to discover it and make it grow within themselves in the most beautiful way.
