Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Wednesday, March 7, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

This very special moment in your day opens a space of beauty within you. This moment is thus ennobled by a kind of contact capable of softening the vibrations of the material world. What you have been doing for so many years with the same fervour demonstrates a deep commitment promoted by love alone. Our aspirants who are fully committed have this ardour, which prevents them from failing when faced with inevitable problems. In this domain, everyone is given what they can endure. Such testing is productive when understood with a sense of utmost acceptance. All this is not easily understood by human beings. The strongest are often confused in circumstances in which their faith can be affected. No one is spared. God's laws are thus. They are unavoidable, weaving the fabric of each one's destiny in order to trigger that which is essential for the realisation of the Being. A high-level spiritual path is an achievement for determined seekers. It is up to them to make a firm commitment; we then offer them the best way to advance.
