Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Friday, March 9, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

A story continues from one lifetime to the next. Yours is a beautiful one, showing a being's resolve to serve the Divine. Nivedita has left her mark in India. She was guided by a love that made her achieve beautiful and great things for this country – a country chosen by a heart eager to serve a Master and a spiritual way that suited her. You can be sure that we are appreciative, my dear daughter. Your next incarnation will meet the same criteria; your wish will be answered in many ways, in a properly chosen and blessed family. Nothing will be easy, but where would the challenge lie otherwise? This incarnation is not easy either, but it has generated such results!

All is well according to our wishes.
