Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, March 12, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

The time for this special sitting is drawing near; your thought rises up towards us. It focuses on the main thing, and we meet your expectations. United are we in these precious moments in a circle of divine energy where our hearts can achieve that which is not humanly imaginable. The divine power can then manifest itself in its own way, and with greatest humility we can only be appreciative. Without this deep humility, there would be no true greatness. It is in secrecy that this greatness is prepared, hidden from human turmoil and ego – and this for as long as necessary. When a being is ready to take on the role he or she needs to assume, everything falls into place and is revealed in this world. Our Mission is well served on this point: my son's successor will be up to the task and will do what must be done. Thus will the Mission grow in grandeur – this Mission that is called to a magnificent destiny. This is how it is.
