Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

Monday, March 26, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

The end of this journey of messages has not yet come. We have a few more beautiful pages to write, carried by this very special energy that delights our hearts. Our Mission now offers this singularity, namely a teaching that is given through writings of a special nature that are recognised and appreciated by open-minded people who trust us. It is not easy to help humanity advance; Galileo, among others, experienced this first-hand. More modestly, we are trying to help our aspirants progress by way of messages from the world of the Spirit, received through this means that has been used since ancient times.

A new stage has come for our dear scribe who is granted these special sittings – meant for a special being whose services, offered by love and love alone, are appreciated by the hierarchy of Masters. This is worth emphasising. It is a matter of the heart – it makes us happy, and this kind of Monday rendezvous delights us. It is out of the ordinary. Enjoy it, my dear daughter. This will remain a unique feature in our Mission. You did not ask for it, but we knew it would come about. Therefore all is well; be blessed and strengthened in your daily struggles.
