Whispers from The Brighter World
A Sixth Revelation

My dearest son,
It is indeed time to review the importance of this symbol in our Mission. It is of a subtle essence in its vibratory extensions. Each molecule in a materialised body is full of many elements unknown to today's science. The divine energy at the very core of every cell in the human body is quite a significant example of that. At the current evolutionary stage, it is essential for each of our members to make their own discovery of such a phenomenon. To this end, we gave many years ago several messages that were quite explicit. Relatively few of our members truly delved into them and tried to really understand them.

The time has come to take a serious interest in this; hearts are opening to knowledge, and a deeper appreciation of certain laws would be desirable. Whether it is perceived or not, the divine energy dwells in each incarnate being. Who understands this? What spiritual path tries to make sure its practitioners understand the importance of it? For most of them, the relationship has yet to be established between their material and spiritual aspects, of which they are bearers without being aware of it. God is within you, some movements say; the Master is within you, we say to our aspirants. The proof is provided thanks to these elements of divine energy at the very core of every cell in the human body. This fact is remarkable; one day it will become obvious to everyone, especially to very spiritually evolved beings.

May all this be understood by our aspirants. It is further necessary that all functionaries and prefects adhere to our comments and appreciate the messages for their true worth; this is not yet the case, and it must change. If they do not trust us, what consideration do they have for their Master? That is the question.

My dear son, all will be accomplished in a timely manner under your high authority. We carry you to the zenith, where our hearts cherish you.
